

Amber N. Massey

Miami, FL

She/Her

📞 305-938-8463

✉️ amassey@hinshawlaw.com

About Amber

Amber focuses on defending insurance companies in cases of breach of contract. She has extensive experience representing clients in complex litigation involving business and insurance coverage in state and federal courts.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Amber represented insurance companies in property insurance claims.

While earning her law degree, Amber was published in Nova Law Review and interned with the Office of the Attorney General and Legal Aid of Broward County.

Amber's Affiliations

- Miami-Dade Bar Association

Areas of Focus

Industries: Construction; Insurance; Reinsurance

Services: Bad Faith, Market Conduct & Extra-Contractual Liability; Complex Commercial Litigation; Insurance Coverage Litigation & Counseling; Litigation & Trial

Recognition

- Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, Dean's List

Credentials

Education

Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, JD, cum laude

Florida Atlantic University, BA

Bar Admissions

Florida

Court Admissions

US District Court for the Middle District of Florida

US District Court for the Southern District of Florida

Thought Leadership

Publications

- “An Eye for an Eye Will Make the Whole World Blind: How Restorative Justice Will Help Florida See Again,” Nova Law Review, 2018

In The News

- Law360 Pulse Covers Headcount Growth in Hinshaw’s South Florida Offices, Nov 15, 2023