About Dan

Dan represents financial services institutions in complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts throughout New Jersey and New York. He actively litigates and counsels clients in the adjudication and resolution of high-stakes matters. Dan's extensive experience includes defensive litigation, default-driven commercial and residential litigation, and workouts for a diverse range of clients, from the nation's largest brick-and-mortar banks to non-traditional lenders of various sizes.

Dan also regularly counsels employers on labor and employment matters, helping them manage rapidly emerging issues, mitigate risk, and litigate when necessary. Drawing on his strong client relationships and in-depth knowledge of trial and appellate courts and opposing counsel, Dan develops and implements tailored litigation and risk-management strategies to achieve the best possible outcomes for his clients.
