About Zeeshan (Zee)

Zee represents consumer financial services providers and banks in complex cases involving mortgage lending, foreclosures, credit-reporting issues, automobile finance, insurance defense, and other creditors' rights matters. He collaborates with a diverse group of experienced colleagues and clients, excelling at evaluating complex legal issues and executing litigation strategies efficiently. Thriving in innovative environments, Zee values creative problem-solving.

He prioritizes achieving positive results for clients while managing legal costs. His enthusiasm for learning has led to numerous presentations on financial services topics, including the Federal Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the California Rosenthal Act, mortgage servicing, and California's litigation landscape. With experience in private practice and government, Zee takes a comprehensive approach to litigation, proactively addressing potential issues.

Zee's previous experience includes conducting fraud analyses, reviewing loan authorization agreements for the US Small Business Administration, and advocating in Zambia's juvenile justice system.
