About Chad

An experienced defense attorney in Illinois state and federal courts, Chad represents Fortune 500 companies and other clients in all areas of civil litigation, including medical and legal malpractice, class actions, product liability, toxic and mass torts, insured and self-insured employers in catastrophic workers' compensation, municipal liability, and civil rights matters. He also has deep experience in insurance law, providing coverage analyses to help clients understand their policies and exposure.

Chad litigates state and federal laws across multiple jurisdictions and advises on compliance with agencies such as the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid services (CMS), including Medicare set-asides, conditional payment liens, and related penalties. He collaborates with clients to develop operational controls, policies, and procedures that address regulatory, financial, compliance issues while helping to reduce brand risk.
