

Pascale S. Chancy

Fort Lauderdale, FL

📞 954-375-1136

✉️ pchancy@hinshawlaw.com

About Pascale

Pascale is an insurance defense attorney representing insurance carriers, self-insured entities, and businesses in litigation, including catastrophic injury claims, premises liability, product liability, and vehicle negligence. She has a proven record of effectively managing risk exposure for her clients.

Before joining Hinshaw, Pascale was part of the coverage team at a mid-sized firm and served as in-house associate general counsel for a major homeowners insurance company.

Pascale's Affiliations

- Florida Bar

Areas of Focus

Industries: Insurance; Reinsurance

Services: Bad Faith, Market Conduct & Extra-Contractual Liability;
Claims Resolution, Management & Social Inflation Containment ;
Complex Commercial Litigation ; Complex Tort & General Casualty;
Insurance Coverage Litigation & Counseling; Litigation & Trial

Credentials

Education

St. Thomas University School of Law, JD, magna cum laude, 2001

University of South Florida, BA, cum laude, 1994

Bar Admissions

Florida

Languages

French

Haitian Creole

Interests

Did you know...

During her time away from the office, Pascale enjoys traveling and spending quality time with her son, friends, and family. Additionally, she is dedicated to maintaining her fitness routine and can often be found at the gym, where she engages in weight lifting and circuit training several days a week.