J. Richard Supple co-authored the book New York Attorney Discipline Practice and Procedure published by the New York Law Journal, an ALM Publication. The New York Attorney Discipline Practice and Procedure untangles New York's unusual system of attorney regulation and provides a practical, in depth discussion: for lawyers who receive complaints, wish to get admitted to practice, or are subject to discipline; for their lawyers; for staff and committee members of disciplinary agencies; and, for consumers of legal services.
