Thomas P. McGarry and Thomas P. Sukowicz were mentioned in a Chicago Daily Law Bulletin article titled, “In winning landmark case, lawyer lost a lot.” The article discusses the recent Supreme Court ruling that will affect how the ARDC pursues disciplinary charges for actions that do not involve an attorney-client relationship.

McGarry is quoted as saying, “Kavathas didn’t set out to be the ‘poster child’ that would change the way the ARDC levels charges. But that’s what the decision in his case made him.”
