Jan 15, 2015

Eliot Abbott, Partner, Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP was quoted in the article, “Small business lending of all types has grown, expected to grow more,” published by Miami Today.

The article discusses the expectation that 2015 will be a good year for small businesses when it comes to lending.

“I am bullish about the economy in 2015. I perceive our economy, at least in South Florida, it’s going to continue to grow. Businesses will continue to grow and as businesses grow, they need more credit.”

Eliot Abbott has decades of experience in domestic, international, private and public business transactions in a variety of areas, including telecommunications, Internet commerce, real estate development and construction, international distribution and project finance. He advises clients on matters regarding planning, tax, contracts, financial and compensation planning and acquisitions and exit strategies.
