Law360 recently released its results of the “Top 25 Law Firms for Black Attorneys” survey on May 25, 2015. Of all of the law firms surveyed, Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP ranked 20th on the list.

The 25 firms that were ranked as top law firms have significantly more black attorneys than the industry average, particularly at the partner level, according to Law360 data. The firms in the top 25 average 6.6 percent black nonpartners and 4.4 percent black partners, well above the overall averages of firms that submitted data for the 2015 Law360 Minority Report. The average U.S. law firm has just 3.5 percent black nonpartners and 1.6 percent black partners, and blacks are the most poorly represented racial minority at U.S. law firms, according to the survey data.
