Mr. Levitt leaves the top elected position in the IDC with an extensive list of accomplishments. "David's service to the IDC and the defense bar was exceptional. Whether it was testifying on legislation before the Illinois General Assembly, engaging with other bar associations, or giving presentations on current issues affecting the defense bar, David's commitment to advancing the IDC and the defense bar was evident. Unquestionably, the IDC is better for having had David Levitt as its President," said IDC Executive Director Sandra J. Wulf.
