Kevin R. Sido, a Chicago-based partner at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, was profiled in the article “ADR Systems’ Neutrals Named in Leading Lawyers’ Top 10 for ADR,” published February 26, 2016. In the article, Mr. Sido is quoted as saying the “ADR category is likely becoming of more interest to the legal community due to a ‘spill-over’ effect, and that “attorneys have come to realize in the last decade that ADR is a necessary component of any successful legal practice.” He then explains that the benefits of using ADR are innumerable and vary widely due to cost savings, flexibility and increased level of client satisfaction it provides.

Kevin Sido has a significant background in alternative dispute resolution. He is a mediator and former arbitrator for the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois. He has served many years on the Panel of Construction Arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association. He serves on the panel of neutrals of ADR Systems of America, LLC.
