Cassidy E. Chivers and Kendra L. Basner, San Francisco based partners at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, authored the article “Make Your Firm’s Practice Groups a Risk Management Tool,” published by The Recorder on April 6, 2016.

The article analyzes why the practice group concept, which traditionally has been used as a marketing and internal training tool, should also be the law firm’s core vehicle for risk management. The article explains that collaboration on client work is important because of an improved ability to catch errors, promote efficiency and morale, and provide the best practices and value for the client.
