Paula-Lee Chambers, a Boston-based partner in the Consumer Financial Services group at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, has been selected to serve as the Vice-Chair for the Fidelity and Surety Law Committee by the Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section (TIPS) of the American Bar Association (ABA) for the 2016–2017 fiscal year. The appointment is due to her commitment to TIPS and her reputation among its 24,000 members.

Paula-Lee Chambers is an experienced trial attorney focusing her litigation practice on the representation of mortgage servicers, lenders, and trustees of securitized mortgage trusts in matters alleging predatory lending, mortgage fraud, violation of consumer protection statutes, and challenges to mortgage holders' right to foreclose. Ms. Chambers practice also includes surety and fidelity law.
