Hinshaw attorneys Aimee Delaney and Nick Corsano presented “Best Practices for Building an LGBT Inclusive Workplace and Preventing Claims” at the Connecticut Valley Chapter of the Risk and Insurance Management Society, Inc. Annual Meeting on June 7, 2017. The presentation discussed; federal, state, and local LGBTQ workplace legal protections; definitions of LGBTQ terminology; employment scenarios that could lead to claims in the workplace; and best practices for promoting an LGBTQ inclusive work environment.

You too can schedule a similar presentation for your workplace. Hinshaw’s Harassment Prevention and Inclusion Training Program can be tailored to all levels of employees, including: staff, supervisors, managers, and executives. The Program is delivered through an in-person, interactive session customized to your organization. Depending on your needs, presentations can be given as a single appearance or multiple times per day.
