Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Amee Mikacich has been appointed the President of California Women Lawyers (CWL). Mikacich was inducted in a ceremony at the CWL's 44th Annual Dinner and Silent Auction in San Diego, on September 13, 2018.

Since 1974, CWL has promoted the advancement of women in the legal profession and advocated for the concerns of women in society. The Annual Dinner event, of which Hinshaw was a sponsor, served as the kick-off for the California Lawyers Association Annual Meeting.

Mikacich is a graduate of San Francisco Law School (J.D.) and the University of California, Berkeley (B.A.). She focuses her practice on product and premises liability, labor and employment counsel and commercial litigation. Mikacich is admitted to practice in California.
